Suzy Hoodless Studio

Self-labelling her schemes as ‘a kind of alchemy’ feels entirely apt for Suzy Hoodless, who celebrates 25 years of her west London studio in 2025. Her approach, which seamlessly mixes styles and eras, colour and texture, to wonderful effect, has won the former magazine interiors editor plenty of fans.

‘Nearly every client we work for – whatever their brief is – says they want a comfortable family home, so that informs a lot of what we do,’ Hoodless says.
