SPOTLIGHT ON...

Suzy Hoodless celebrating 25 years with a printed-in-England wall wonder

Marking her 25th anniversary this year, Suzy Hoodless has unveiled her personal and evocative Pines of Kernow wallcovering, designed in collaboration with Adam Ellis Studio and printed in England. Kernow is the Cornish name for Cornwall, and the design was inspired by the dramatic view from Suzy's family retreat on the county's south coast. Capturing the spirit of the Monterey pines in the Cornish landscape, it evokes the warm comfort of nature.

Suzy founded her interior design studio in 2000 and is known for her bold yet considered approach, blending colour, texture and a mix of modern and vintage styles.
